

Growing preschool ministry needs more adult volunteers

Calvary Church is certainly blessed to have a growing number of young families! In our Children's Ministry preschool department on Sunday mornings, we now have almost 200 children attending "Bible Time" each week. With 16 classrooms serving ages two through Kindergarten and a minimum of two adults per room at 9:15 and 11:00 AM, we need 64 volunteers each Sunday to minister to these children. Over the summer months the need is just as great!

Currently we need additional teachers and assistants in order to provide a safe environment and quality care and instruction for our preschoolers. Sharing God's Word and His truth is an awesome privilege. And those who serve with our team find it is really a great joy to get to know these children and their families! Volunteers serve on a rotating schedule; training and materials are provided. Won't you join us? Please call the Children's Ministry office or sign up online at www.calvarychurch.com/serve. A background check is required. We need at least 64 volunteers each Sunday just in our preschool department...

Enjoy a "Cookout with Dad"

Dads, bring your kids to a fun summer cookout on Saturday, June 19, at 4:00–6:00 PM at the sand volleyball courts. The menu is hamburgers and hotdogs from the grill! We'll have a brief devotion from Pastor David Ingrassia, then play volleyball, capture the flag, and kickball. Please REGISTER ONLINE by June 17 or sign up at Galleria table 4A. Cost is $10 per family if you preregister; $15 walk-ups. Contact: Mitzi Koch, 704.341.5417, mkoch@calvarychurch.com

Plan ahead for fall women's conference

Priscilla Shirer leads the "Going Beyond" event, October 8–9 in Columbia

Calvary women are invited to attend the "Going Beyond" conference with Bible teacher and author, Priscilla Shirer. Priscilla's desire is to see women come to a real understanding of who they are in Christ through the uncompromising truth of Scripture. The conference will be held at Shandon Baptist Church in Columbia, SC on October 8–9. Anthony Evans will lead worship for this Friday evening/Saturday morning event. As a courtesy, details are posted at www.calvarychurch.com/women, along with a link to the conference registration website. Since this is not a Calvary-sponsored event, all registration, travel, and hotel arrangements are the responsibility of the attendee. Contact: Sandra Grundmann, 704.846.4176, rgrundmann@carolina.rr.com

Ladies, won't you join us for breakfast?

We'll enjoy prayer, praise, fellowship and an uplifting message from Gina Ingrassia on Saturday, June 12 in the Crown Room. The buffet opens at 8:45 AM, and our program begins promptly at 9:00 AM. An offering will be received to cover the meal. We will collect paper products for Lois' Lodge and canned food for Calvary's food pantry. Please register online or sign up at Galleria table 4 by June 6. Contact: Sandy Short, 704.821.2049, westcotteleven@yahoo.com

Sing with the Calvary Choir this summer!

Summer is a great time to come sing with the Calvary Choir. Our rehearsals are on Wednesdays from 6:30–8:15 PM through June. We take a break in July, then resume in August. The choir is comprised of followers of Jesus Christ, high school age and older, who consider Calvary their church home. Please call the Worship Ministries office this week to get started! From the Senior Pastor

Prayer required

Sometime in the fall I am considering broadcasting one minute spots on secular radio. We will continue our broadcasts on Christian radio, but are considering reaching the unchurched. These will be short "spots" containing a verse of Scripture or biblical truth designed to provoke thought in those who may never attend a church service.

Dr. John H. Munro

Essential to the effectiveness of the broadcasts will be fervent prayer. If you would like to pray for the preparation and the broadcast of these "spots" let me know. The seed which is sown needs to be watered by the prayers of the followers of Jesus Christ. Those praying may never meet as a group, but I would like to have a group of people praying specifically for this ministry. If you feel so led to be part of this vital prayer team, do let me know. You may email me at jmunro@calvarychurch.com or drop me a note.

"Pray also for me, that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the Gospel... that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak" (Ephesians 6:19-20). ■

Pastor Munro to greet newcomers next Sunday

If you have recently started attending Calvary, you're encouraged to join John and Gudny Munro in the Rea Road Room next Sunday, June 6, immediately after the worship service. Refreshments and coffee will be prepared for you, plus you'll hear more about the vision and ministry of Calvary Church. Please take this opportunity to connect and have your questions answered!

Attention graduates

Next Sunday, June 6, Calvary will honor our graduating high school seniors. Students, wear your graduation cap and gown and report to the Sanctuary before 9:00 AM for a group photo. Please be prompt! Graduates will be recognized and seated together for the service. Contact: Audrey Storms, 704.341.5320, astorms@calvarychurch.com

Calvary & Samaritan's Feet collect Shoes for Kenya

Calvary is collecting new sneakers for children

In preparation for our GO Kenya missions trips this summer, we're collecting new sneakers in children's sizes 11–13, youth sizes 1–7, and adult sizes 4–6. These will be given to children living on Ringiti Island and Mfangano Island in Lake Victoria. Please place donations on the collection racks in the Galleria concourses through June 16.

Volunteers needed to serve at Samaritan's Feet center on June 19

Come sort, snip tags, and stuff socks into new shoes at the Samaritan's Feet distribution center on Saturday, June 19 from 9:30 AM–noon. The center is located at 1900 Associates Lane in Charlotte. Stop by Galleria table 4B to sign up. Contact: Debbie Lineberger, 704.542.6000

Calvary's GO Kenya teams will partner with Samaritan's Feet to provide shoes for children in Africa this summer.

Are you at a crossroads in your career?

Calvary's Career Ministry offers real, practical assistance and support through your job search process. On Monday evenings our Christ-Centered Career Groups (C3Gs) and professional development seminars focus on spiritual direction, job lead sharing, networking, practical strategies, and more. On Monday, June 7, our guest speaker will be Tony Tennaro, leader of C-12, America's leading resource for Christian business owners, CEOs, and Presidents. His message, "Your Next Right Move," may be instrumental in helping you take the next steps in your career. Join us in the Crown Room at 7:00 PM. The presentation is free, with no further obligation.

To access free Crossroads Career@Network resources register at www.calvarychurch.com/career. Registration is not necessary to attend the Career Ministry meetings, but participants often find the network offers many useful resources for their job transition. Students complete evangelism training

On May 22, a group of Calvary middle school students was recognized for completing the "Dare to Be a Daniel" evangelism training program at a ceremony at the Billy Graham Library. The 13-session course was developed by BGEA to encourage youth to "purpose in their heart" (Daniel 1:8) to take a stand for Jesus Christ and to learn to share their faith.

Fifty-four Calvary students have participated in the program since 2008. A special thanks goes to Ken Collins, Vicki Pettit, and Karmen Estes for facilitating this training. Please congratulate and pray for these 17 recent "Dare to Be a Daniel" graduates as they seek to live lives that glorify the Lord: Chelsea Green, Jake Blizzard, Landon Brower, Brittany Lutton, Brandon Moran, Collin Ramirez, Marion Watson, Brittany Carroll, Emma Edwards, Kelsey Hawkins, Ashley Hinson, Hayley Hinson, David Ingrassia, Allison Moldenhauer, Zachery Montgomery, Ryan Moran, and Addie Robards.
